Caroline Peters

Richmond, Virginia

Caroline Peters has practiced law in the areas of real estate and general commercial litigation for over seven years. She currently works for Capital Center, L.L.C. and Lyndhurst Investment Consulting, Inc. Caroline graduated magna cum laude from Brooklyn Law School in 2003 and Davidson College in 1994. Between college and law school, Caroline served in the United States Army and the Washington State National Guard. Caroline spends her free time volunteering for Hospice of Virginia, B.A.R.K., and other charitable organizations. The two loves of her life are Maggie, a dachshund mix, and Emma, a miniature dachshund.
