Jenni Booker Richmond, Virginia

Jenni Booker is the Director of Programs & Communications at the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges (VFIC). She takes lead responsibility for all of the foundation's programs, projects and special events. She also takes lead responsibility for the foundation's communications, publications and public relations. The Virginia Foundation provides a look into 15 of Virginia's finest private colleges and universities. The VFIC raises funds for its 15 private liberal arts member institutions and creates partnerships between individuals, the business community, and the 15 college and universities.

Ms. Booker came to the VFIC from The Cultural Arts Center at Glen Allen, where she served as the Director of Development. Previously, she held leadership positions as the Director of the Annual Fund and Director of Alumnae at St. Margaret's School as well as positions in human resources, public relations and corporate communications at Capital One Financial and Owens & Minor, Inc.

Ms. Booker is a graduate of Randolph-Macon Woman's College with a major in Communications. Her board service includes the Virginia Association of Fundraising Executives (VAFRE), President-Elect of the St. Margaret's School Alumnae Board and Past President of the Richmond Animal League Board of Directors. She has presented at VAFRE workshops and has participated in conferences and workshops with Council for the Advancement of Secondary Education (CASE), National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS), Virginia Association of Independent Schools (VAIS) and the Alumni Program Council (APC). She is also a member of the National Society of the Colonial Dames in the Commonwealth of Virginia and is the proud Mom of an 11-year-old German Shorthaired Pointer, Max.
