

Advisory Committee

Matt Foote
Richmond, Virginia

Matt Foote is a Real Estate associate for Hirschler Fleischer, where his practice focuses on a range of commercial real estate transactions. He graduated magna cum laude from the University of Richmond T.C. Williams School of Law in 2008. Prior to law school, Matt was a high school English teacher. Matt received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English from the University of Arizona, where he was a varsity tennis player. Matt also received his Master of Arts degree in English Literature from the University of California, Irvine. The smartest member of Matt's busy household is Codi, a Golden Retriever/Collie mix.