

Advisory Committee

Ron L. Scott

Dillsburg, Pennsylvania

Ron L. Scott is well known in the dog show world, having been involved with show dogs for about 30 years. He has owned a wide variety of dogs over the years including Pointers, Beagles, Yorkshire Terriers and all three sizes of Poodles. He has co-bred over 100 Champions and showed the top show dog in the United States in 2007, toy poodle Vikki.

Mr. Scott graduated from Illinois Institute of Technology with a degree in Business and Economics. He has experience in the steel industry and was in the Forklift business for over 30 years. Mr. Scott owned Forklifts Inc. from 1984 thru 2007, a regional distributor of material handling equipment. He is currently retired and serves on the board of several charities and a bank board.